

European Day of Languages

The European Day of languages is a day to encourage learning language in Europe.

This day is on the 26 september. It has been organized by the Council of Europe since 2001.

It's the opportunity to learn new languages. Everyone can participate to many activities.

Learning other people languages is a way to meet new friends and new cultures.